

Clint Herron - HoF - 1975

Coming out of the service in 1946, Clint resumed his pre-war softball career by joining up with Joe Rodgers and the newly formed Long Beach Nitehawks. Clint, a shortstop until this time was moved by Joe to third base and held that Nitehawk position until he was 51 years old!

His teammates affectionately called him "MOUSE" for his defensive skills that found him scooting around the infield from foul line to foul line. He was an excellent bunter and slap hitter while wearing the Nitehawk uniform for 28 seasons.

A member of 10 world championship teams, he was named "All-American" 12 times and participated in 23 International Softball Congress world tournaments as a player.

Clint was the consummate team player who went on to coach and teach the game he loved for many years.
