

Steve Schott - HoF - 2013

Steve Grew up in the rolling hills of Kelso, a small town located in the Boot heel of Missouri. In May of 1965, Steve was born into the world of fastpitch softball.

Within weeks of his birth, Steve was at his first fastpitch game watching hi father, A.J. Schott, play the sport that would eventually change his life.

At a young age, his fatehr insoired him to pursue his dreams of becoming an elite fastpitch softball player.

Little did he know, those dreams would eventually become reality