

LUXURY BLUE JAYS SUITE TICKET SALE

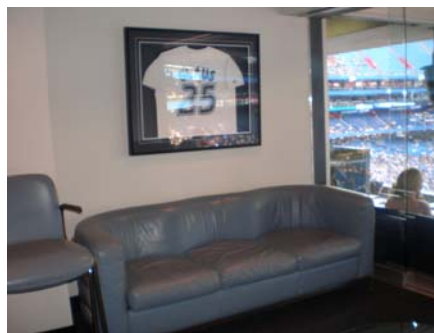

By Auction

GREAT NEWS – As part of the successful International Softball Congress World Fastball Tournament in Kitchener, Toronto Blue Jay Troy Glaus and his wife Ann generously donated their 16-seat Luxury Suite. The Suite, located on the first base line at the Rogers Centre in Toronto, was provided to the wives of the ISC Commissioners for Labour Day weekend games to be used as a fund-raiser.

Toronto Blue Jays host Seattle Mariners

(Retail value of each game is $3,200)

A fund-raising raffle was held at the ISC Tournament in groups of eight tickets for each game, with six winners in total. A couple of the winners (notably from the USA) are unable to use the tickets and have donated them back to be auctioned with all proceeds to two local Children's Charities:

Children's Wish Foundation of Canada and Family & Children's Services of Waterloo Region

Great News if you're a baseball fan, and even better if you're a Blue Jays fan!

Friday night August 31, all sixteen (16) seats are available
Each ticket is valued at $200 and includes, courtesy Ann Glaus, a hot dog, bag of chips and soft drink

Plan "A" If a buyer takes all 16 seats, the ISC Host Committee will sell first come/first served for a discounted price of $150 per ticket = $2,400.

Plan "B" If no-one takes all 16 seats, they will be auctioned in pairs with a minimum bid of $75 per ticket.

You can bid on these seats by responding to any one of the following volunteers with the ISC Host Committee, by providing: your name, phone #, bid per ticket and how many tickets you want.

Bids will be accepted until Auction Deadline of Tuesday August 28th - 9:00 pm EDT (Intent is to offer the tickets to the highest bidder(s) to maximize the donation to the charities. All winners will be notified Tuesday evening immediately after closing deadline.)

Anne Boehm
anneandlarry@sympatico.ca

Tom Clancy
tclancy@golden.net

John Thompson
sstj99@yahoo.com